

The LONGWOOD
CENTER for the
VISUAL ARTS

129 North Main Street
Farmville, Virginia 23901

Break Glass: Facilitating Conversations to End Hate Professional Development Teacher Workshop

Tuesday, February 13th 2018: 9:00 am – 3:30 pm

Agenda

- |                            |   |
|----------------------------|---|
| 9:00 am - 9:30 am   | Coffee, introductions and check inLocation: Longwood Center for the Visual Arts   |
| 9:30 am – 11:30 am  | “Creating More Inclusive Schools” Johnathan Zur,President and CEO, Virginia Center for InclusiveCommunities (VCIC)   |
| 11:30 am – 12:15 pm | Tour of the V.L. Cox Exhibition  |
| 12:15 pm - 12:30 pm | Shuttle to Moton Museum  |
| 12:30pm - 1:00 pm   | Lunch at Moton Museum  |
| 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm   | “Best Practices and Approaches for Teaching theHolocaust” Megan Ferenczy, Director of Education,Virginia Holocaust Museum                                      |
| 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm   | “Understanding the Moton Story and Engaging inDialogue Across Lines of Difference” CainanTownsend, Director of Education and Public Programs,Moton Museum |
| 3:00 pm – 3:30 pm   | Tour of the Moton MuseumEvaluationRe-Certification Certificates of Participation   |