Teaching About Japanese American Internment During World WAR II

Thursday, March 16 • 10 AM-3:30 PM

Virginia Holocaust Museum • 2000 East Cary Street, Richmond, VA 23231

The Virginia Holocaust Museum and The Heart Mountain Wyoming Foundation present “Teaching About Japanese American Internment During World War II.” Join us as Shirley Ann Higuchi, chair of The Heart Mountain Wyoming Foundation shares the history and stories of people that were imprisoned during World War II because of their Japanese ancestry. We will examine how incarceration was the result of decades of racism and discrimination in the United States and not just a reaction to the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Learn the history, best practices, and resources to use in the classroom to help your students critically examine the lessons from this dark chapter in American History.

Space is limited. Register at www.vaholocaust.org or with QR Code. Deadline for Registration is March 9, 2023.

This workshop is FREE for educators and includes:

- Breakfast, Coffee, and Lunch
- Educational resources and copies of “Setsuko's Secret: Heart Mountain and the Legacy of the Japanese American Incarceration” and “Heart Mountain: The History of An American Concentration Camp.”
- A certificate of attendance
